

Commvault Appoints Ranga Rajagopalan As Vice President Of Product Management

July 25, 2019

-- Rajagopalan to Manage End-to-End Software Design Services for Commvault's Suite of Data Management and Data Protection solutions--

TINTON FALLS, N.J., July 25, 2019 /PRNewswire/ -- Commvault (NASDAQ: CVLT), a recognized global enterprise software leader in the management of data for cloud and on-premises environments, today announced Ranga Rajagopalan as the company's vice president of product management, reporting to Chief Product Officer Rajiv Kottomtharayil. Rajagopalan will manage end-to-end software design services for Commvault's suite of data management and data protection solutions, including Complete Backup and Recovery, Commvault HyperScale, Commvault Orchestrate and Commvault Activate.

"With deep experience leading product management and engineering teams across the entire lifecycle of data protection and disaster recovery products, Ranga is the ideal person to head our product teams through our ongoing transformation to hybrid cloud solutions," said Rajiv Kottomtharayil. "We are thrilled to have him and look forward to collaborating across Commvault to shape the future of our product strategy."

Prior to joining Commvault, Rajagopalan held multiple positions at Dell EMC, including senior director of strategy and operations for Dell EMC's Data Protection Division, where he managed business strategy, planning and operations. He also led product management for Dell EMC's data protection appliances, including Data Domain and IDPA. Before Dell EMC, Rajagopalan was the director of product management at Veritas Technologies LLC and Violin Memory. Prior to this, he held multiple positions at Symantec, HP, and DSQ Software.

"I believe Commvault's innovations around data protection in hybrid environments will shape the industry for years to come," said Rajagopalan. "I'm extremely excited to become part of an organization with such a long track record of successful execution and to be in a position to help continue that tradition."
