

Commvault Shows CISOs and IT Leaders How to "Keep it Clean" at RSA Conference 2024

May 1, 2024

Join Commvault where the best go to test their cyber resilience - North Expo Booths #5778 and #4308

TINTON FALLS, N.J., May 1, 2024 /PRNewswire/ -- Commvault, a leading provider of cyber resilience and data protection solutions for hybrid cloud organizations, is excited to make its RSA Conference debut where attendees can visit Booth #N-5778 to experience what we believe is the first and only dedicated cleanroom experience for cyber recovery. Attendees can also see the latest in cyber resilience at Commvault's second location, Booth #N-4308. Commvault's full schedule will include a range of activities on the expo floor and beyond.

Welcome to the Modern World of Cyber Recovery: Commvault Cleanroom at Experience #N-5778: Dive into the future where recovery, testing, and resilience converge. It's called Commvault Cloud Cleanroom Recovery. This isolated environment is designed to test and strengthen your cyber resilience. It functions as a classroom to enlighten your team about unknown threats and a strategic war room for crafting realistic plans to tackle new compliance challenges. Discover how to fight attackers in an increasingly complex digital landscape. While Cleanroom Recovery typically exists in the cloud, we've brought it to the physical world at RSA.
