

Commvault Appoints Brian Lanigan as Chief Partner Officer

July 6, 2026

Veteran cybersecurity and partner ecosystem leader to accelerate global channel growth and strengthen strategic alliances

TINTON FALLS, N.J., July 6, 2026 /PRNewswire/ -- Commvault (NASDAQ: CVLT), a leader in unified resilience at enterprise scale, today announced the appointment of Brian Lanigan as Chief Partner Officer. Reporting to Geoff Haydon, President of Customer and Field Operations, Lanigan will lead Commvault's Global Partner Organization, driving the company's worldwide partner strategy and expanding its ecosystem of hyperscalers, managed service providers (MSPs), distributors, resellers, systems integrators, and strategic technology partners.

Lanigan joins Commvault with more than two decades of experience building and scaling high-performing partner organizations across the cybersecurity and enterprise software industries. He has held leadership positions at SentinelOne, Lacework, Splunk, and HP Software, driving significant partner-led growth, strengthening strategic alliances, and expanding cloud and managed services ecosystems.

"Partners are central to our growth strategy and to helping customers advance resilience readiness in an increasingly complex AI and cyber landscape," said Haydon. "Brian brings significant cybersecurity expertise to Commvault and has a proven track record of building world-class partner programs and driving measurable business results. His leadership and experience make him the ideal person to lead the next chapter of Commvault's partner ecosystem growth."

"Commvault has established itself as a trusted leader in AI and cyber resilience, and I'm excited to join the team at such a pivotal time for customers and partners," said Lanigan. "I look forward to working with our global partner ecosystem to create new opportunities for growth, deliver exceptional customer outcomes, and expand the value Commvault brings to organizations around the world."
