CommVault(R) Strengthens its Opportunities for Growth with the Appointments of Industry Veterans to Head Sales in Canada and U.S. Federal Markets

OCEANPORT, N.J., Apr 30, 2007 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- CommVault(R) (NASDAQ:CVLT), a leading provider of Unified Data Management(R) solutions, today announced the appointment of storage industry veterans Rob Stroud and Wayne Webster to direct CommVault's strategies for growth in Canada and in the U.S. Federal market, respectively. Stroud joins CommVault as country manager for Canada and Webster steps into the position of CommVault's director of Federal sales.

"Rob and Wayne bring to CommVault a wealth of sales experience and storage industry knowledge, as well as a strong track record of success in their respective markets," said Ron Miller, CommVault's vice president of sales, Americas. "These appointments underscore CommVault's commitment to augmenting our sales management team with proven leaders. Through broader national coverage and more targeted Federal programs we hope to foster deeper customer relationships and growth for the company across Canada and the U.S. Federal sector."

With nearly twenty years of storage technology experience, Stroud's responsibilities include increasing revenue opportunities, leading the growing Canadian sales team, and expanding CommVault's business operations in the region which currently includes offices in Ottawa, Calgary and Mississauga. Prior to joining CommVault, Stroud held various sales management and technical roles with leading IT companies including Hitachi Data Systems and EMC.

Webster joins CommVault after two years with the Ingres Corporation, where he was vice president of worldwide partner sales. Webster, who has been in sales and sales management in the government information technology market for 12 years, will head the company's Federal government sales initiatives from CommVault's offices in the Washington D.C. area. Previously, Webster has held Federal sales leadership positions at Network Appliance and Veritas (now Symantec).
