OCEANPORT, N.J.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--

CommVault (NASDAQ:CVLT):

News Facts:

-- CommVault will showcase its data and information management leadership with a variety of presentations and product demonstrations as a gold sponsor at the SNW Fall 2008 conference.

-- CommVault technical representatives will offer multiple demonstrations of the company's award-winning Simpana(R) 7.0 software including Exchange and SharePoint Message, Document and Attribute Level Recovery; Archiving and Compliance; Full Content Search; Remote Office Backup and Replication; Reporting; Media Management; and Security.

-- Additionally, CommVault(R) software expert Simon Taylor, senior director of Information Access & Management, will offer the latest thinking on regulatory and compliance issues and present best practice approaches to mitigating the risk associated with managing organizational data.

-- CommVault will also take part in the Hands-On Lab to demonstrate the recently announced integrated backup-to-disk solution built on the new Dell(TM) PowerVault(TM) DL2000 powered by CommVault Simpana software. The industry's first customer-installable, integrated software and hardware solution provides a comprehensive disk-to-disk based solution to help small- and medium-sized (SMB) companies implement and leverage a data management strategy that is simpler, more scalable and cost-effective to deploy.
